PRO-AMERICAN RALLY — About 200 Murray State University students gathered on the lawn of Hart Hall Thursday afternoon for a Pro-American rally sponsored by the Young Republicans and Young Democrats. The peaceful rally was staged to protest the Americans held hostage in Iran by Iranian students. It ended with a moment of silent prayer for the hostages and the singing of "God Bless America." Speakers were Joseph T. Fuhrmann, Murray State University history professor; Tom Wilson, president of the College Democrats; and Pat Taylor, president of the College Republicans.

Local, State Governments To Eye Spending If Bill Wins Approval

By HERBERT SPARROW

Associated Press Writer
FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Local and state governments will have to watch their spending in the future if a bill approved by an interim legislative committee wins final approval of the legislature and the voters.

The Interim Joint Committee on State Government Thursday voted to approve a bill that had been drafted in September by Sen. Gene Stuart, R-Prospect, to limit government spending.

The bill, which would require a constitutional amendment that would have to be approved by the voters, would tie the limit on spending to the Consumer Price Index for local governments and to the state's gross personal income for state government.

Under the proposal, state government could not increase its tax revenues by more than 12 percent of the previous year's personal income for the state, or the average personal income in the three previous years, whichever was greater.

Excess collections would be refunded to taxpayers through credits on their state income tax returns.

Local governments' revenues could not grow by a greater rate than the growth of the Consumer Price Index during the previous year as determined by the U.S. Department of Commerce.

Stuart said the figures could be exceeded on the state level through an emergency declaration of the legislature, which would also have to approve specific emergency appropriations. The level could be exceeded on the local level through a referendum.

The far-reaching measure would also limit bonded indebtedness by the state and require all bond issues on the local level to be approved by the voters. The General Assembly would have to approve all state bond issues and the bill would require annual reports on the state's bonded indebtedness.

The bill would also prohibit local governments from levying any new taxes or user fees not in effect on Jan. 1, 1981, and would limit the governor's contingency fund to emergencies and deficits only.

The measure will now be introduced in the 1980 General Assembly with the committee's recommendation that it be adopted.

Stuart said the measure would effectively contain government at its present level unless the people want it to grow.

"It requires government from this point on to set priorities," Stuart said. "It will help insure that the tax dollar is wisely spent but it doesn't hamstring government so it cannot operate effectively."

"There has got to be a limit on the amount we can expect the taxpayers to continue to bear," Stuart said.

However, some members of the committee said they were voting for it only to keep discussion alive.

"We need to look at this more, but I feel it is an idea that needs to be kept afloat," said Sen. Joe Prather, D-Vine Grove.

"I have problems with how it affects the faster growing areas of the state, but I want to study it," said Sen. Jack Trevey, R-Lexington.

"I think the more you study it the more you will come to the agreement that it is needed," replied Stuart.

Newspaper Publisher Elected To Term On Seminary Board

Walter L. Apperson, publisher of The Murray Ledger and Times was recently elected to serve a three year term on Board of Trustees of Lexington Theological Seminary, Lexington, Kentucky.

The seminary affiliated with the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) was founded in 1865 and was associated with Transylvania University. In 1950 the school was moved to a new campus adjacent to the University of Kentucky, where it has developed several mutually beneficial ties.

The seminary is ecumenical in scope with a student body of graduate students from numerous different denominations and foreign countries. Its faculty is also ecumenical with at least four denominations represented.

The school is a part of the Theological Education Association of Mid-America (Team-A) composed of Asbury Theological Seminary, Louisville Presbyterian Seminary, Saint Meinrad School of Theology, and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Militants Threaten Action Against Hostages

Demonstrators March On U.S. Embassy In Tehran

By The Associated Press

An estimated 80,000 demonstrators marched on the U.S. Embassy in Tehran today and Moslem militants threatened to take harsh action against their hostages inside the mission if the United States forced the shah to go to any country but Iran.

NBC-TV news in Tehran said the march on the embassy was the biggest since the hostages were seized Nov. 4. After Moslem Sabbath prayers, loudspeakers broadcasting from minibuses led the demonstrators in anti-American chants.

The protest took on a carnival atmosphere, the British Broadcasting Corp. reported, with families and vendors mixing with the demonstrators. A long line of Tehran taxis drove past the embassy carrying stuffed animal effigies of wood and straw which people in the crowd struck while shouting anti-American slogans. It was not clear what the animals signified.

A spokesman for the militants inside the embassy told Tehran Radio: "We announce the message of the Iranian people to the world that if America expels the shah, it will be committing an offense even greater than its previous ones. The shah should be delivered to the Iranian nation with his hands tied. If America expels the shah, it must be certain that harsher decisions will be taken against the hostages."

The Associated Press in Bonn, West Germany, reached the embassy in Tehran by telephone and spoke with a student who said, "So far, those hostages are safe here and in a comfortable condition."

"But I'm not sure what would happen if the United States lets the shah leave. I'm not sure what action the people will take."

The broadcast, monitored in London, also said the militants would boycott American goods and that they urged other Iranians to ban U.S. products in any way possible during the coming week.

So far the U.S. government has refused to meet the militants' demand for the shah's extradition, and has given no indication it planned to expel him.

Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini, Iran's 79-year-old revolutionary leader, has canceled all appointments for the next three weeks because of "slight fatigue and illness," the state radio said, and foreign diplomats in Tehran predicted a long siege for the hostages.

As the crisis entered its 13th day today, the United States mounted a new win increased domestic and international pressure for release of the captives, said by the State Department to number 60 to 62 Americans and eight non-Americans.

The number of hostages previously had been estimated at nearly 100, but the State Department said Thursday night that about 30 Iranian employees were freed shortly after the embassy takeover Nov. 4.

Iran was still insisting that Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, ousted by Khomeini's forces in January, be extradited from the United States before the captives could be released, and there was no sign the crisis was about to end soon, foreign diplomats in Tehran told The Associated Press in Bonn, West Germany, by telephone.

Further complicating the situation was an apparently growing dispute between some Iranian government officials and the demonstrators who seized the embassy. The conflict, which intensified Thursday, left it unclear who would decide the hostages' fate.

The protracted stalemate led to calls for President Carter to take even tougher steps against Iran, but U.S. officials in Washington said shipments of food and medicine to Iran would not be blocked for the time being.

The American Farm Bureau Federation, the United States' largest farm group, said it would support an embargo on U.S. food exports to Iran. U.S. farm products represented more than one-quarter of Iran's agricultural imports last year.

Carter, making his first lengthy public comment about the crisis, said in a speech Thursday in Washington that he was holding Iranian authorities "fully responsible" and "accountable" for the safety of the hostages.

The president, who earlier banned Iranian oil imports and froze Iranian government assets in the United States, said the Iranians "must know that the United States of America will not yield to international terrorism or to blackmail."

However, Hasan Habibi, Iran's new cultural minister and government spokesman, said in a broadcast on Tehran Radio:

"The general principles of our foreign policy are that we will, in no way, retreat from the threats and display of force by imperialism. We will further strengthen our anti-imperialist position, every moment more than the moment before."

He said of the shah, who is being treated for cancer at a New York hospital: "We want an international criminal back from the United States, that is all."

The demonstrators holding the hostages reacted angrily Thursday to acting Foreign Minister Abolhasan Bani Sadr's suggestion that women and non-white hostages be set free in the next few days without the shah's extradition.

Company Board Chairman Says Conversion Needed For Economy

Converting to an economy based on unavailable resources was discussed by William L. Wearly, chairman of the board of directors and chief executive officer of the Ingersoll-Rand Co., in a press conference Thursday.

Speaking before several media representatives in the Murray State University television station, Wearly said the United States' decreasing natural resources have forced Americans to become dependent on other nations.

"We have lived in an economy based on cheap energy," Wearly explained, "but cheap energy is no longer available to us."

Noted as an expert in areas of international trade and investment, Wearly said the energy situation has forced a change in lifestyles since Americans "can't live the way we want to."

In looking toward the future, the Warren, Ind., native said if the country is to survive, all elements of society "must work in harmony."

"There has been too much confrontation between business, government and labor," Wearly added.

President Carter's recent decision to stop Iranian oil imports will not have an effect on his company, Wearly said. However, in the long run, "it will have a great effect to cause the United States to do more to develop its own resources," Wearly added.

The Ingersoll-Rand Co., one of the world's largest corporations, operates 63 plants in the U.S. and 41 abroad. It is the largest producer of non-electrical machinery and equipment for industry with assets over $2 billion.

The company's products are marketed in 119 countries around the globe. The firm employs 50,000 people.

Ingersoll-Rand has Kentucky plants in Mayfield and Campbellsville.

Wearly said the hiring policy of the company attempts to keep nationals in each country. However, he added several employees are required to travel to plants in various countries.

Some thought has been given to expanding business to the People's Republic of China. Wearly said some business has been conducted in that country. He added a company representative is stationed in Peking to aid in trade development.

Some economical problems due to depleting natural resources could be remedied by with an increase in U.S. participation in the world export market, Wearly said. He explained that in 1960, the U.S. had 18 percent of all the world export market. He added today that figure stands at 12 percent.

According to Wearly, several major countries have increased from or maintained their 1960 export figure. Wearly cited "America's arrogant hypocrisy" for the decline in exports. "We think everything we do is right," he explained.

Holder of a Bachelor of Science in electrical engineering at Purdue University and honorary doctoral degrees from both Purdue and Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Wearly joined Ingersoll-Rand in 1962 as a vice president and consultant. He was elected to the board in 1964 and named chairman in 1967.

Wearly also is on the board of directors of the American Cyanamid Co., the American Smelting and Refining Co., the J. Ray McDermott Co., the Bank of New York and the National Association of Manufacturers.

He is a member of the policy committee of the Business Roundtable and the executive committees of the Machinery and Allied Products Institute, the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers and the Institute of Electrical and Electronic Engineers.

Wearly began his career with Joy Manufacturing Co. where he was named vice president in 1948 and president in 1957.

Ambulance Manager Seen As Priority To Hospital

Hiring a manager for the new Murray-Calloway County Hospital ambulance service was set as a major priority by the hospital board at its meeting Thursday night.

According to Stuart Poston, hospital administrator, the first responsibility of the manager would be to assist in establishing the ambulance program.

Currently, the hospital has received 12 applications concerning the ambulance service. Poston added that he and Danny Watters, hospital controller, have visited the services in the Owensboro and Henderson hospitals.

Poston said determination of quantity of staff members and length of shifts has not been decided.

The hospital board voted at its October meeting to accept the ambulance service effective Jan. 1, 1980. The present service is run by Angels of Mercy, a private firm from Paducah. Their contract expires Dec. 31.

In other business, Poston reported Phase II of the building program has progressed. He said the current work includes plumbing, insulation, outside brick, floors and roofing. Concerning the parking lot, Poston said today would be the final day this year for pouring blacktop.

Poston also said he was pleased with the progression of the site work.

The board members approved a five percent pay raise for all hospital employees. Poston said the raise was due to inflation.

Dr. William Wilson, hospital chief of staff, said a new general surgeon, Dr.

Robert Williams, is setting up practice in Murray. Coming from New York, Williams will be located on the third floor of the Medical Arts Building, Wilson said.

Watters reported that the hospital was at 81.5 percent occupancy during October.

The next meeting of the board is scheduled for 12 p.m. Dec. 27.

Citibank Increases Prime Lending Rate To 15 3/4 Percent

NEW YORK (AP) — Citibank, the nation's second-largest bank, raised its prime lending rate today from 15 1/2 percent to a record 15 3/4 percent.

Citibank said its formula for determining the prime called for a 16 percent rate, but that it had decided on the smaller increase.

The prime rate, charged by banks to their best corporate customers, has no direct effect on consumer loan rates, but is seen as an indicator of where other rates may be headed. Banks use the prime to set rates on nearly all commercial-industrial loans, with all but the most credit-worthy businesses paying rates several percentage points above the base rate.

The prime has been rising rapidly in recent months, the result of credit-tightening steps being taken by the Federal Reserve in an attempt to stem inflation.

BOARD CHAIRMAN — William L. Wearly, chairman of the board of directors of Ingersoll-Rand Co. spoke on the nation's resources in a press conference Thursday afternoon in the Murray State University television station. Wearly said the U.S. economy is becoming based on an unavailable supply of natural resources.

Miss Donna Rogers Is Married To Mr. Packa

The wedding of Miss Donna Jane Rogers of Birmingham, Ala., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rogers of Cadiz and the late Mrs. Loris Rogers, to Joseph James Packa of Birmingham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Packa of North Canton, Ohio, was solemnized on Saturday, Oct. 13, at 1:30 p.m. at Saint Paul's Cathedral in Birmingham.

The Rev. Brian Egan and the Rev. W. H. Rogers, Jr., brother of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony before the marble altar flanked by spiral candelabra and baskets of white roses and greenery.

Special music for the ceremony was by Robert Wideman who played the pipe organ. At the close of the ceremony the couple lit the unity candle and then each went to greet their parents and in-laws. They then returned to the altar kneeling for prayer.

Bride's Dress

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a full-length gown of ivory organza which featured an empire waist, Queen Ann neckline, and bishop sleeves. The gown was trimmed in chantilly lace in rows from the neckline to the bottom of the skirt in the front and back. The skirt flowed to a chapel length train which was edged in matching chantilly lace. She wore an ivory Belgian lace mantilla.

Her only jewelry was a strand of cultured pearls which belonged to her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of roses, baby's breath, and greenery tied with ribbons in love knots.

Mrs. Nell Evans of Murray, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor, and Miss Pam Joyner of Memphis, Tenn., was the bridesmaid. They were identically attired in full-length gowns of pale blue crepe with pale blue floral caplets also of crepe, and each wore a comb with rosebuds and baby's breath in their hair. They each carried a cascade bouquet of blue roses, baby's breath, and greenery.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph James Packa

Best man for the groom was Michael Ott of Sea Ranch, Cal. Ushers were Kyle Evans of Murray, nephew of the bride, and Allen Wayne Knipfner of Clanton, Ala. Mr. Evans also assisted the clergymen during the ceremony, and Mr. Knipfner served as the groomsman.

For her stepdaughter's wedding Mrs. Rogers chose to wear a beige knit full-length gown with bone accessories. Mrs. Packa, mother of the groom, was attired in a full-length gown of blue qiana with gold accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of roses.

Miss Laurie Ann Rogers of Cadiz, niece of the bride, presided at the guest register.

Reception

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Ski Lodge II Clubhouse.

Misses Martha Branyon, Anne Belcher, Janis Martens, and Jenny Packa, sister of the groom, and Mesdames Marguerite Kinney, Lucy Hitchman, and Belinda

Hammond assisted at the reception.

After the reception the couple left for a wedding trip with the bride wearing a brown qiana dress trimmed in beige with brown accessories and a corsage of cymbidium orchids.

The couple is now at home in Birmingham where the bride is an assistant professor of nursing at the University of Alabama, and the groom is a national staff member and safety specialist in the American Red Cross Alabama Division.

Rehearsal Dinner

Following the rehearsal dinner was served at the bride-to-be's apartment for the wedding party and out of town guests at which time gifts were presented to the attendants.

Several prenuptial events were held honoring the couple including a tea held at the Fellowship House of the Grace Baptist Church, Murray, with Mrs. Leland Peeler, Mrs. Nell Evans, Mrs. Tommy Walker, Mrs. Buel Downey, and Mrs. Keith Downey as hostesses.

Falls for His Bedtime Story

DEAR ABBY: I'm an 18-year-old girl with a problem I can't talk to anybody about. I am very shy, and just don't know how to say no to people.

About three months ago I want to bed with a guy I baby-sit for—I'll call him "Mr. M." He's divorced and has two little kids. Even though I knew it was wrong for me to go to bed with him, I didn't know how to turn him down without hurting his feelings.

"Mr. M." is a nice person, but he doesn't consider me in his class, or care about me as a person. He's dating a woman his age (35) who sometimes sleeps over.

Now that I've gone to bed with "Mr. M." five or six times, I don't know how to refuse him. I don't feel anything special for him, like I did for the guy I went steady with last year.

I want to quit baby-sitting for this man, but I really like his kids and they are crazy about me. Also, I'm too shy to tell him what's on my mind. What should I do?

CAN'T SAY NO

DEAR CANT: You CAN say no, and you MUST! Your problem is not "shyness," it's a very low self-esteem and lack of confidence. You need more help than I can give you in a letter. Please see a professional at your local mental health clinic. You must learn to assert yourself, and put an end to allowing yourself to be used.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 52-year-old divorcee in love with a charming, well-to-do 55-year-old widower I'll call Frank. He is delightful company and wants to marry me. Now for the problem.

Frank has two married daughters (whom I have never met) who want to run his life. They are so afraid that someone is going to take advantage of their father that they can't stand it. (His wife died two years ago and he's afraid to tell his daughters that he has been dating!)

When Frank takes me out, we have to go where his daughters will not find out about it. Also, when he comes to my home he takes a taxi so no one will see his car parked in front of my house!

How can I convince Frank that it's time he lived his own life and quit worrying about what his daughters think?

BACK STREET BONNIE

DEAR BONNIE: If you could meet his daughters and win them over it would be ideal. But a grown man who hides his lady friend from his daughters sounds like poor husband material to me.

DEAR ABBY: My neighbor across the way keeps standing in front of his window stark naked!

I do not catch accidental glimpses of him in this state. He actually stands by the window that way hoping to be noticed. I have reported him to the police, but they say he is in his own home and there is nothing they can do about it. He has a wife and children, but he does this while they are not at home.

Should I tell his wife? I don't know her very well, but I will speak to her if you think it will do some good.

NEW NEIGHBOR

DEAR NEW: The man needs help. Present the bare facts to his wife.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is thinking about buying a "hot" color television set and also a "hot" movie projector. The man who wants to sell them got them from someone who steals to support his drug habit.

I told my husband I thought it would be wrong for us to buy these items even though we can get them way below cost, but my husband says if we don't buy them someone else will.

Abby, I don't want any part of a deal like this, but how can I convince my husband that it's wrong?

NO NAME OR TOWN, PLS.

DEAR NO: He KNOWS it's wrong. Just tell him that anyone who knowingly buys "hot" merchandise stands to share in the guilt of the theft—if caught.

Who said the teen years are the happiest? For Abby's new booklet "What Teenagers Want to Know," write Abby: 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Enclose $1 and a long, stamped (28 cents), self-addressed envelope, please.

Thetas To Meet Monday At Florist, Holiday Program

The Theta Department of the Murray Woman's Club will meet Monday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. at Gene & Jo's Flowers for a special program on "Looking Forward To Christmas."

Following the program the group will go to the club house for the business and social hour, according to the vice chairman, Martha Enix.

Hostesses will be Alexa Starks, Martha Enix, and Oneida Boyd.

Speaker at the October meeting was Lanette Thurman, director of the Personal Enrichment Center at Murray State University, who presented a program with all members participating on the theme of "Woman's Place Is In Her Own."

Mrs. Thurman closed by giving each member a copy of the poems, "I Can Be A Positive Thinker!" and "The Real You."

Maxine Scott, chairman, presided. Reports were given by Thelma Warford on the Arthritis Drive, Margaret Cavitt on the Stanley financial project, Oneida Boyd on the district contest, and Dortha Jones on the Blind Corners project.

Dorothy Byrn was appointed by Mrs. Scott to serve on the House and Garden committee with the Advisory Board of the general club.

October hostesses were Janet Hough, Maxine Scott, and Anna Mae Thurman.

Local Association Plans Monday Meet

The Calloway County Association for Retarded Children will meet Monday, Nov. 19, at 7:30 p.m. in the Special Education Building, North 16th Street, Murray State University.

All members and interested persons are urged to attend, a spokesman for the group said.

Kennedy Named As Best Dressed

CHICAGO (AP) — Just a few days after he threw his hat in the ring, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., already has upset President Carter as the best-dressed man in American politics.

Kennedy, who recently announced his candidacy for the 1980 Democratic presidential nomination, was chosen by the Custom Tailor's Guild of America. Each year, the guild asks its members to name their choices for the best-dressed men in 10 different career fields.

The 10 must be "immaculately groomed and properly dressed for all occasions," said Alfonso Caprio, president of the guild. Carter was best-dressed man in American politics in 1977.

The other winners on this year's list included Burt Reynolds — films; Don Rickles — night clubs; Frank Sinatra — music; and Pittsburgh Steelers quarterback Terry Bradshaw — sports.

In many of the cases that come to our attention, the patients are not sure that what they have is really a "back problem." Their backs do not hurt constantly, but only "catches" in some positions. Because of this, some feel that if they give it time, the condition will heal itself.

Most back pain is caused by mechanical defects in the spine... misalignment of spinal vertebrae. At first, there may be only an occasional "catch" with a change in posture but small defects develop into larger, more serious ones with continuous pain.

Only rarely will a spinal misalignment correct itself. Chiropractic can provide immediate relief.

Love "Number One" first.

We've all heard people say, "Take care of number one first." This statement clearly establishes number one as ourselves. Yet we are taught from childhood to be selfless and considerate of others.

Two popular books of recent years, "I'm OK, You're OK" and "Your Erroneous Zones" support the idea that self esteem and loving ourselves are prerequisites to all other relationships and good mental health.

There is another book that takes yet another point of view. The Holy Bible. It points out that we are not "Number One." God is. And to love our neighbor as ourselves implies that we must love ourselves as He loves us. Only then can we adequately love another.

This is one opinion or interpretation of how Christianity can help us understand life. At the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) you can tell us how you feel about the Bible. And guess what? We'll listen.

EDITORIAL

A Salute To Our Youth

In 1954, a North Carolina group of Optimists decided too much attention was being given to the negative acts of youth and too little attention to the vast majority of youth accepting fulfilling roles as responsible citizens. To bring about recognition of the positive actions and contributions of young people, Youth Appreciation Week was inaugurated.

Since its inception, this observance has grown to where it is now sponsored by Optimist clubs throughout North America. It has as its objective to publicize the fact that today's youth are not the selfish, lazy degenerates that too many adults fantasize.

The vast majority of youth is well informed, concerned, willing and interested in becoming involved in efforts to improve our society. While the vitality and spirit of youth need the wisdom and experience of adults as support in efforts toward the successful achievement of their goals, it follows each adult has a responsibility to assist youth through the transitional stage toward adulthood.

It is indeed important that we give the needed recognition to deserving youth, but we must not become complacent and overlook the necessity for continued personal dedication and involvement with community improvement.

Youth Appreciation Week is a vehicle through which all adults and youth may work together for the good of all. We join with the Murray Optimist Club in saluting the youth of our community.

HEARTLINE

Heartline is a service for senior citizens. Its purpose is to answer questions and solve problems — fast. If you have a question or a problem not answered in these columns, write Heartline, 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381. You will receive a prompt reply, but you must include a stamped, self-addressed envelope. The most useful replies will be printed in this column.

HEARTLINE: I am a 55-year-old widow with three children under the age of 18 in my care. I went through my deceased husband's papers and found what looked to be four very old small pamphlets on VA benefits and programs. We called the VA Information Office here in our city and asked for all the new material they had on different benefits. They sent us the very same pamphlets. My brother said there was a book that explained all VA benefits. Do you know of such a book through the VA? — G.K.

Benefits for veterans and their families and facts on how to obtain them are described in the booklet, "Federal Benefits for Veterans and Dependents." While there are many other publications describing individual agency programs, this one gives an overall view of what is offered and is the place to start for people who have never used VA services.

The 71-page publication tells how to secure education and training, medical care, compensation, pension, G.I. loans and many other benefits.

The booklet also explains who is qualified for these benefits and lists all VA addresses and phone numbers, including the free long-distance numbers to VA regional offices. Cost of the booklet is $1.50. Checks should be sent to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, North Capitol and H Sts. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20401.

HEARTLINE: I am a widow 62 years old. My husband died in 1960 at the age of 50. I worked part-time for five years and full-time for 15 years. My question is, when I retire, can I collect widow's benefits and also my own benefits from

Social Security? — H. M.

When you retire you can collect either your own benefits or you can collect your widow's benefits, whichever benefit is higher. You cannot collect both full benefits.

HEARTLINE: I saw an advertisement in a magazine about escape ladders — I don't remember what magazine. After thinking about it, I would like to purchase one. My wife and I are not as agile as we once were, but climbing out a window does appeal to us more than burning to death or breaking both legs and assorted other bones from jumping from a second-story window. Can you give me some information on escape ladders? — B.M.

Most ladders are completely portable. Most weigh less than 25 pounds. Fire-escape ladders are most commonly available in two lengths: 15 feet for second-story use and 25 feet for third-story use. Prices range from $18 to $90 plus shipping.

An escape ladder can be deployed easily enough, provided it has been stacked neatly in its storage box. To install the ladder, you secure the ladder's large hooks to the window, feed the ladder out of the window, one rung at a time, then let it dangle — and there is where you might really develop a problem.

Many ladders are built in such a way that they dangle too close to the house. If a climber manages to find a foothold, the result is jammed toes. However, we do know of two brands of ladders that have eliminated this problem. On one brand, every pair of rungs is part of a four-legged rack that plants squarely against the wall of the house. Toes have room to find solid footing. The other brand, although constructed differently, is designed to keep the rungs away from the wall but is a little more wobbly.

Heartline has put together some useful information on this subject. If you would like to obtain it, it is free. Please send 25 cents to cover postage and handling to Heartline-Escape Ladder Tips, 114 E. Dayton St., West Alexandria, Ohio 45381.

Bible Thought

"Then said one unto him, Lord, are there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter in at the strait gate, for many I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able." Luke 13:23-24

One's relationship to God and eternity should depend upon Bible teachings, and not upon personal feelings. Disappointment may come to many!

The Reign Of Love In The New Community

Ephesians 4:22-5:2

God requires His children to be right in their relationship with both Him and their fellowmen. In their relationship with others, believers in Christ are rightfully expected to practice and exemplify the Christian virtues in their daily living.

As God's informed children know so well, anyone whom Christ has saved as experienced a visible, admirable, thorough, and permanent change. He enjoys a peace and satisfaction that he never knew before. A Christian sees, thinks, feels, and acts differently from what he did prior to his salvation. Therefore, he is under obligation to put off the ways and habits of his former life.

Paul lists a number of carnal things that Christians should eliminate from their lives:

1. Put away lying. 4:25

When one becomes a child of God, he is to lay aside lying once for all. There is no place for a spoken or an acted falsehood in the life of any Christian. Every believer must be truthful in word and in deed.

2. Put away anger. 4:26

A Christian is commanded to refrain from cherishing anger and allowing it to smolder in him. Anyone who harbors anger and bitterness does himself an irreparable injury, as well as hinders the progress of the Lord's work in which he is engaged.

3. Put away stealing. 4:28a

If one has previously indulged in this sin, he must quit it entirely.

4. Put away corrupt speech. 4:29

A Christian is to refrain from vulgarity, profanity, and foul language of every sort.

5. Put away all that grieves the Holy Spirit. 4:30

By their unholy imaginations, impure thoughts, wrong attitudes, sinful words, and disobedient deeds, God's children sometimes cause the Holy Spirit acute pain or plunge Him into deep sorrow. He is grieved deeply when Christians neglect their spiritual duties, or ignore Him.

6. Put away all unkindness. 4:31

One cannot harm another without injuring himself and displeasing the Lord.

Paul also made it clear to his Christian readers, in Ephesians 5:1-2, that, inasmuch as they had undergone a tremendous transformation when they became the children of God, they should manifest the difference by their manner of living. He admonished them to walk lovingly as they attempted to exemplify the fact that they had become the recipients of His nature and had an earnest longing to follow the example of His Son and their wonderful Saviour and Lord. Christians can enrich the lives of many people through following Christ faithfully in the pathway of genuine love for God and others.

The Story Of Calloway County 1822-1976

By Dorothy and Kerby Jennings

Copyright, 1978

Not all of the diversification of county agricultural adventures shared the ultimate success of the milk company. Strawberry production and marketing peaked in the 1920's and collapsed in the early 1930's, although history should give an A for effort. If recollections are correct, two factors in Calloway contributed to the strawberry decline, weather and competition. Overproduction favored by excellent weather glutted the market with thousands of crates of the luscious fruit spoiling within two weeks, thus dropping the final curtain on a novel agricultural show.

The optimistic lull of the Roaring 20's prompted the city council to place on order a modern fire truck at a cost of $8,750, capable of delivering 50 gallons of water from a booster tank to extinguish small blazes or contain a major fire until hose lines could be run into action. Another push-up for the city's future was the announcement construction would begin Aug. 9, 1929, on the Keys & Houston Clinic at the corner of North 5th Street at Walnut Street. Sponsoring medics were Dr. B. B. Keys and Dr. E. B. Houston. The medical organization had been operating on the second floor of the old Peoples Bank Building at the corner of Main and North 5th Street. The new hospital facility provided an extensive competitive health unit for the William Mason Memorial Hospital. The competition resulted in utmost care for patients, superior equipment and nominal expense, $5 a day for private room and $5 a day for a private nurse per 12 hour shift—a far cry from the bankrupting rates prevailing today. In addition, credit was extended without the slightest embarrassment to the most humble citizen without a dollar in his pockets.

Perhaps the hospital rates of the Roaring 20's were in harmony with tobacco sales averaging $13.30 a hundred for the Jan. 29, 1929, season. Tobacco had to await the government program of 1933 for a more equitable guarantee for growers to subsist.

Value of annual physical

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — It's about time for my annual physical examination. During the past year I've heard several reports that this is a useless exercise plus being expensive. I'm 51 years old and a male and don't have any medical problems that I know of. I get an annual physical because I want to stay in good health. I'm sure there are a lot of your readers who would like to know whether we're wasting our time and money with this effort.

DEAR READER — It depends on what you mean by an annual physical examination. In certain situations, entirely too many tests and perhaps some overly sophisticated tests are done too frequently. But the major causes of death and serious illnesses are often associated with changes that don't cause increased by high blood pressure, which may cause no symptoms at all, and high cholesterol levels which you won't know about unless you have a blood test.

Some news accounts are of reports based on expense versus economic return. This really doesn't make any sense to the individual. As one physician said, "It's like saying you don't need the fire department because you haven't had any fires."

The incidence of heart attacks and strokes has significantly decreased in this country. Many men in your age group drop dead from a heart attack. Their first symptom is when they drop dead. It's a little late to do an examination then.

We know full well that the risk of having a heart attack or a stroke is significantly try in recent times. One reason is because of detection and control of high blood pressure in people who didn't even know they had it.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 10-2. Your Valuable Medical Examination. It will answer a lot of these questions you and other people have about why they need an annual medical examination and, more specifically, what such an examination should include. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Did you know that the third most common cause of cancer deaths in men in this country is cancer of the prostate? Did you also know that only 6 percent of the men in civilian life survive but the survival rate from Walter Reed Army Hospital is 50 percent? Guess why? It's because the army series is from people who have regular medical examinations and the cancer is detected early enough to do something about it.

If you adopt the attitude that annual medical examinations aren't worth the cost, you might as well forget about preventing heart attacks, strokes and cancer — the major killers and causes of disease in our society today. So what if it costs you a little time and money and you never develop any of these serious illnesses? That's a small price to pay for the opportunity to either prevent such catastrophes or to be able to be cured if one of them occurs.

Looking Back

10 Years Ago

Children's Book Week will be observed Nov. 16-22, at the Murray-Calloway County Public Library. Special programs have been scheduled, according to Margaret Trevathan, librarian.

Deaths reported include Mrs. Bertha Mae Austin, 85, and Charlie Uzzle, 91. Kent McCuiston of Calloway County has been elected treasurer of the Jackson Purchase 4-H Club.

Linda Brownfield of Murray will perform with the Murray State University Readers' Theatre on Nov. 18 and 19 in the production of W. Somerset Maugham's "Rain."

Today is Friday, Nov. 16, the 320th day of 1979. There are 45 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history: On this date in 1933, the United States and Soviet Union established diplomatic relations.

On this date: In 1532, in Peru, the Inca empire fell to Spain.

In 1776, in the Revolutionary War, the British took Fort Washington on the Hudson River — and got 2,000 prisoners in the bargain.

In 1907, Oklahoma became the 46th state.

In 1932, New York's Palace Theater was converted into a movie house. The Palace had been the world's most famous vaudeville theater.

In 1941, Nazi Germany launched a second assault on Moscow — again doomed to failure.

In 1968, Dr. Samuel Sheppard of Cleveland was freed at his second murder trial — after nine years in prison.

Ten years ago: The "Apollo 12" spaceship was on its way to the moon — on a perfect path.

Five years ago: The World Food Conference in Rome approved the formation of a new United Nations committee to help improve the world food supply.

Today's birthday: Actor Burgess Meredith is 70.

Thought for today: A man may build himself a throne of bayonets, but he cannot sit on it. — William Ralph Inge (1860-1964)

Against Austin Peay two weeks ago, Murray State's David Wooldridge (64) celebrated the Racers' victory. No. 60 is Reggie Pope. Murray attempts to sew up the outright Ohio Valley Conference title against Western Kentucky tomorrow.

Season Ending Affair?

Naw — Murray To Win By Two

By TONY WILSON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

For the first time in 28 years, Murray State's season-ending game with Western Kentucky may NOT be a season-ending game. It will be if Murray loses, but if it wins, well, the Division I-AA playoffs selection committee have the say about that.

OVC PICKS

But one thing is for certain, the Racers must defeat the Hilltoppers in Bowling Green tomorrow in a game that starts at 1 p.m. to entertain any playoff hopes.

The Racers, 8-1-1, seek their third victory in four years over the Hilltoppers.

Last week's picks were last seen hightailing it for the border, because they certainly weren't worth much here. Only three of the six were called correctly, dropping the season's totals to 28-8, .778.

The final, and biggest, week:

Murray 16, Western Ky. 14 — There are plenty of ways Murray could win — or lose — tomorrow, but this corner looks for the Racers' defense to set the tone early. If Western Kentucky quarterback John Hall has time to throw, the Racer secondary will be showered with passes. But a few timely sacks by the "Crunch Bunch" can take care of that.

Eastern Kentucky 20, Morehead 12 — Probably the toughest game to call because of Morehead's inconsistency. The same defense that held Western to three points gave up 16 to, gulp, James Madison.

Too, the Colonels have the incentive of still-alive hopes for a playoff berth, especially if Murray should stumble.

Tennessee Tech 28, Middle Tennessee 14 — As lackluster a matchup as the Ohio Valley Conference can offer. Both teams are winless in league play and Middle has yet to win anything.

Austin Peay 20, Mars Hill 10 — Austin Peay has bounced back well from its three straight early-season league losses and has a chance to finish 7-4 with a victory over its non-conference foe.

Eastern Illinois 28, Akron 20 — Unless Akron wins, coach Jim Dennison will suffer his first losing season. But Eastern Illinois, the defending Division II national champion, should do the trick.

Tennessee Trial: Calloway Shrugs Henry County For Invitational Semifinal Berth

By TONY WILSON
Ledger & Times Sports Editor

Both Henry County and Calloway County were trying to put two-and-two together in this early-season matchup, but the former school's coach, Elliott Kemp, was REALLY trying to patch things up.

After seeing his Tennessee team fall 61-51 in a first-round game of the Calloway County Invitational girls tournament last night, though, Kemp offered little excuse.

"The adjustment hasn't been as big a deal as I thought it would be," he said in reference to all Tennessee girls teams adjusting from their former rules. Before this season, each team was made up of three offensive and three defensive players. And neither group ever deviated from its assignment.

And prior to last night, Kemp had only one earlier game this season to prepare for Calloway, the defending First Region and Calloway Invitational champions.

The puzzle did fit well enough for Henry County to pull within four points with as little as six minutes left in the game, but Calloway, to no one's surprise, rode the performance of senior forward Mina Todd.

Todd, chosen all-Jackson Purchase and second-team all-state last season, showed no ill effects of a summer's layoff. She tossed in nine field goals and seven-of-nine free throws for a game-high 25 points.

With the triumph, the Lakers advance to tonight's semifinals. After Murray High plays Hickman County at 6:30, Calloway faces Symsonia, a 49-41 victor over Wingo in the other first-round game last night, at 8. The two winners will play for the championship tomorrow.

First-year Calloway Coach David Elliott was faced with a wait-and-see attitude about his team last night. And he liked what he saw.

"We had a lot of turnovers, but when it got late and we had to have some big plays, we got them," he said. To be exact, Henry County, which once trailed by as many as 11 points in the second half, edged within three at 41-38 with seven minutes left.

But Mina Todd banged in a 12-footer and Melissa Miller sank a layup to push the margin back to seven. Henry County's Connie McClain, though, accounted for three points on a layup and a free throw to cut that lead to four points.

Time out, Calloway.

"I wanted us to be a little more deliberate with the lead," Elliott said. "We were getting the ball out well on our offense, but we were rushing some shots."

Calloway didn't rush its next two. Center Kim Willie dropped in a layup and Todd popped in a baseline 18-footer for an eight-point margin. That burst, in effect, was enough to seal Henry County's fate.

The game was the first Kentucky high school contest Kemp had seen, and he had a specific point to make — namely, walking calls, or a lack of them.

"What killed us as much as anything was their getting away with all those traveling violations," he said. "I don't want to fault Calloway, because we were beaten by a fine team. But the officials let them get away with walking a lot of the time."

Kemp then scratched his chin and reconsidered. "Or maybe that's the way Kentucky schools are allowed to do. I may just not be used to it."

Melissa Miller and Willie, who with Todd formed the Laker starting front line, accounted for 28 more points between them with outputs of 15 and 13, respectively.

McClain finished with 17 to lead Henry County, while guard Lola Williams added 12.

"Part of the pleasure of coaching is that first game — if things go right," Elliott says. "Certainly everything wasn't right for us, but we did show a lot of poise late in the game."

Sedalia 49, Wingo 41

Four of Wingo's five starters were gone with five fouls before the error-plagued game ended, and the two teams between them committed 59 fouls, shot 77 free throws and put an undetermined number of people asleep with the performance.

After Sedalia assumed its biggest lead at 45-35 with five minutes left, both teams accounted for just three field goals thereafter. The rest of time was spent strolling up and down the floor to the free-throw line.

The totals found double-figure scorers in Sedalia's Penny Wray (14), JoJo Harris (13) Debbie Darnell (12) and in Wingo's Dorris Hussey (19) and Penny Clapp (14).

Calloway 61 — Todd 9-12-25; Miller 5-4-4-15; Willie 3-6-3-13; Overbey 2-2-2-6; Hoke 1-0-1-2; Lamb 0-0-0-10.
Henry County 51 — McClain 6-5-6-21; Williams 0-0-1-4-12; Holtgrewe 2-2-2-5-6; Brewer 3-0-3-6; Taylor 1-0-0-2-2; Ray 2-0-2-2-4; Norman 1-0-0-1-2; Dunlap 1-0-3-1-2.

Racer Scrimmage Scheduled

Mayfield, Ky. — Murray State will hold an intrasquad scrimmage at 8 p.m. Monday at Mayfield High School.

Tickets for the event, sponsored by the Mayfield Booster Club, are $1 at the door. The scrimmage will be the Racers' final public action before they host the Australian Olympic Team Nov. 28 at the MSU Sports Arena.

Murray opens its regular season Dec. 4 by hosting Roosevelt University.

Tiger Football Banquet Set

Murray High's annual football banquet will be held Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the Colonial House Smorgasbord, school officials have announced.

Tickets, priced at $4.50 each, will be available at the door. No reservations are being accepted.

Basketball Contest To Be Held

The Murray Optimist Club will sponsor a Tri-Star basketball skills contest Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at Murray High School.

Competition for boys will be held from 9-11 a.m., while that for girls will be from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Both boys and girls will compete in six age groups (8-13).

The contest will evaluate skills in passing, shooting and dribbling. Entry blanks are available at most area schools or may be picked up Saturday at Murray High.

Women's Basketball Offers More Variety, Promoter Says

By WILL GRIMSLEY
AP Special Correspondent

"Who would buy a pair of shoes without trying them on?" asked pretty Meg Griggs. "I'm selling a good product. Try it, you'll like it."

Meg isn't a door-to-door Avon lady, peddling cosmetics. She isn't shilling for some exotic dish, fancy jewelry or vacuum cleaners. She isn't even pushing feminism.

What's her deal? Women's pro basketball, the orphan of big-time spectator sports.

As a bustling public relations director, Meg is horn-tooter for the Women's Basketball League, which although only one year old has not only learned to toddle but is running, jumping and shooting like the beanpoles over in the National Basketball Association.

"We don't attempt to compare ourselves with the NBA," she said. "The guys in the NBA make an exorbitant amount of money. They are so big and strong that they are almost terrifying."

"But because of their great strength and size, they have turned the men's game into a push-and-shove battle instead of a game of science and finesse."

"They get the ball to a seven-foot guy under the bucket and — whoosh! — two points."

"The women offer a viable alternative to people who love the game: Movement, geometric designs, plays and competitors who delight the eye."

The WBL made its season debut Thursday night in the New Orleans Superdome, with the New York Stars playing the New Orleans Pride, and in Washington, D.C., with the Metros host to the San Francisco Pioneers.

Starting with eight teams last year, the league swelled to 14 for the 1979-80 season, reaching out to take in the key markets of the country — New Jersey, Philadelphia, Chicago, Houston, Dallas, Milwaukee, St. Louis, Des Moines, Bloomington, Minn., and Anaheim, Calif., in addition to the previously named.

The Stars make their home debut in Madison Square Garden Saturday. The New Jersey Gems also bow at home with their newly signed super star, Ann Meyers, the former UCLA All-American who got a tryout with Indiana in the NBA. The 5-foot-9, ball-hawking Meyers reportedly signed a three-year contract for $130,000.

"Ann's contract is not indicative of our league's salary scale," Griggs said. "Offhand, I would estimate our salary average at around $15,000 — about one-tenth of what the NBA guys average."

The league also has visual assets. A pair of twins on the New York Stars, Kaye and Faye Young, are statuesque dazzlers who double in TV commercials. Rita Easterling is a dark-haired, ball-handling whiz of the Chicago Hustle, who was last year's MVP.

Spurred by Title IX, colleges — Old Dominion (Va.), Delta State, Alabama, Tennessee, UCLA and others — have become a rich source of talent.

Two of the country's best — Carol Blazejowski and Nancy Lieberman — will first try to bring home a U.S. Olympic gold medal, then try the pros. And Meg Griggs will have more to crow about.

UK-Duke Matchup To Be Official College Opener

By DICK BRAUDE
AP Sports Writer

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. — The college basketball season begins Saturday, earlier than ever, with a New England matchup of southern rivals who last met for the NCAA title.

Kentucky, ranked second in the nation, and Duke, No. 3, in The Associated Press preseason poll, play the first annual TipOff Classic here in a showdown to benefit the Basketball Hall of Fame. The pairing is a rematch of the 1978 NCAA final, won by Kentucky.

The 1 p.m. EST game at the Springfield Civic Center will be part of the teams' won-lost records but it won't count towards the maximum number of regular season contests allowed by the NCAA.

Traditionally, the first college games are played shortly after Thanksgiving. The TipOff game, however, has been approved by the NCAA as the official opener.

Duke has five of its six top players back from last season. Center Mike Givens is the squad's key man, but the Blue Devils also have junior forwards Gene Banks and Kenny Dennard. Both have been twoyear starters.

Duke was 22-8 last season, ranked seventh in the nation. But Coach Bill Foster's Atlantic Coast Conference powerhouse has been smarting because of its prompt elimination from the NCAA tournament. After a bye in the first round, Duke was dispatched by St. Johns.

Kentucky was unranked at the end of the 1978-79 season and finished with a 19-12 record after its 1978 national championship.

But the Wildcats, who made a one-game appearance in the National Invitation Tournament, won 13 of their last 18 games and finished second in the Southeastern Conference tourney.

Coach Joe B. Hall spent the spring snapping up top high school prospects, getting five highly-regarded freshmen topped by 7-foot-1 center Sam Bowie.

Mixing with the youngsters will be such veterans as star guard Kyle Macy, who led Kentucky with a 15.2 scoring average last season.

Hall says the opener "will give us an opportunity to establish our credibility...This is the most athletic group I've ever had."

Big Bowl People Will Have Georgia On Their Minds

By the Associated Press

A lot of people connected with college football's bowl games will have Georgia on their minds Saturday.

The unranked Bulldogs, with an untidy 5-4 overall record — but a tidy 5-0 in the Southeastern Conference — can clinch a berth in the Sugar Bowl by defeating 15th-ranked Auburn.

If Georgia wins, and top-ranked Alabama beats Auburn Dec. 1, the Bulldogs and Crimson Tide would finish in a tie for the SEC title with 6-0 records. But Georgia would get the coveted Sugar Bowl spot because Alabama went last season as the league representative.

However, if Auburn beats Georgia, then the Sugar Bowl would have to wait for the Alabama-Auburn result. If Alabama wins or ties that game, then the Tide would go to New Orleans for the New Year's Day bowl game.

But if Auburn — which is on NCAA probation and ineligible for bowl participation — also beats Alabama, then Georgia would back into the Sugar Bowl, and the Crimson Tide might get shut out of a bowl altogether because by that late date, all the major pairings would be completed.

Alabama, sporting the nation's longest winning streak (18 games) and winners of 47 in a row at home, faces non-conference opponent Miami of Florida Saturday at Tuscaloosa.

"It is the opportunity of a lifetime," Miami Coach Howard Schnellenberger said about playing the nation's No. 1 team and trying to beat Bear Bryant, his former coach in college and the man he once served under as an assistant.

Bryant said he was wary of the Hurricanes despite their 4-4 record, including a 26-10 upset over Penn State two weeks ago.

"Any time you win at Penn State, and they won going away, you have done something," Bryant said.

Saturday at 6 p.m. is the time when bowl invitations can be extended officially, and many of the choice spots will be filled then.

One bowl not worried about its matchup is the Rose. No. 4 Southern California, idle Saturday, will be the host team for the 10th time in the past 14 years if it beats UCLA next week. The other Rose Bowl participant will be either second-ranked Ohio State or No. 13 Michigan. The two Big Ten powerhouses meet Saturday at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Both coaches, Earle Bruce of Ohio State and Bo Schembechler of Michigan, agree that the game will hinge on defense.

"The defenses will be strong on both teams," said Schembechler.

"It's been three years since we've beaten Michigan," noted Bruce, in his first year as Ohio State coach after succeeding the controversial Woody Hayes, "three years since we scored a touchdown on them."

Penny Overbey (right) found her path blocked by Henry County, Tenn., High School's Connie McClain during last night's game in the Calloway County Invitational basketball tournament. Overbey and her Calloway teammates won to advance to tonight's semifinals.

Ryan To Join Forces With Fellow Flamethrower J.R.? It's Probable

By the Associated Press

HOUSTON — The Houston Astros will own two of the strongest right arms in the major leagues if Nolan Ryan joins the Glasshouse Gang, a possibility that seems to have become a probability.

Houston, which already owns the intimidating fastball of last year's major league strikeout king, J.R. Richard, was one of 12 clubs to select Ryan in the recent free agent draft.

Other serious contenders reportedly were the New York Yankees, Texas Rangers and Milwaukee Brewers.

Although no one on either side was saying much Thursday, all indications were that the 32-year-old pitcher plans to sign a four-year Astros contract for $4 million-plus.

And Ryan, who grew up on schoolboy diamonds 26 miles from the Astrodome, said from his hometown of Alvin that he had chosen the team he would join. But he wouldn't say which one.

"I'll let the club make its own announcement," he said. "But I've made up my mind, you can say that."

When Ryan's agent, Dick Moss, was asked in New York if the fireballing free agent had signed with the Astros, however, he said, "I can't deny the obvious."

But Moss also said he and Ryan felt a "duty to let the club involved make its announcement the way it wants to make it, and when it wants to make it."

When Ryan declared his freeagent status, he said the nearness of the Astrodome to Alvin was an important consideration for him.

"Houston has everything in its power to sign me," he said.

The Houston Post reported Thursday that the formal contract signing would be held Monday, but Astros owner John McMullen and Manager Bill Virdon, said they knew of no such plans.

LOS ANGELES — Dave Goltz, the newest Los Angeles Dodger, is also now apparently the highest-paid Los Angeles Dodger.

With a six-year contract reportedly worth some $500,000 a year, the free agent pitcher with a 96-79 career record will make more than such Dodger stalwarts as Steve Garvey, Davey Lopes, Ron Cey and Reggie Smith.

Fitzsimmons Is Singing Praises Of Rookie As King Leads Kings

By ALEX SACHARE

AP Sports Writer

Kansas City Coach Cotton Fitzsimmons, who had a Rookie of the Year last season in Phil Ford, thinks he's got another fine freshman this year in Reggie King.

NBA ROUNDUP

"Someday we'll be able to send him out bear-hunting with a switch," Fitzsimmons said of the muscular young forward. "I think we got us a good one. I can't believe he was still available on the 18th pick."

Even though they didn't get to pick until late in the first round, Kansas City was still able to get the rebounding forward it was hoping for in the 6-foot-6 King, from Alabama. And he's already paying dividends.

King hauled down four defensive rebounds in the last two minutes Thursday night to help Kansas City defeat the Los Angeles Lakers 114-108. Ford provided the offense, scoring 34 points for the second game in a row.

In other NBA games Thursday night, the San Antonio Spurs outscored the New York Knicks 136-132 and the Golden State Warriors beat the Denver Nuggets 120-102.

The Lakers, who had a three-game winning streak snapped and lost for just the third time in 13 starts, led throughout the first half and held a 61-52 advantage at intermission.

But the Kings closed the gap in the third period and played the Lakers even for most of the fourth quarter before going ahead to stay 107-106 on a free throw by King. Baskets by Ford and Scott Wedman, one free throw by King and two foul shots by Ford kept the Kings on top.

"The second half we went out and started playing aggressive defense," said Ford. "And Reggie did a good job on the boards."

"In college I scored a lot of points but I was mostly a rebounder," said King. "This was my best game rebounding as a pro."

Kansas City has now beaten Philadelphia and Los Angeles, following a six-game losing streak. "I think this gives us a lift, beating two of the top teams in the league," said King.

Spurs 136, Knicks 132 — George Gervin scored 33 points and Larry Kenon broke out of a slump with 29 points and 12 rebounds as San Antonio handed New York its fourth consecutive loss.

The Spurs, who hit 52 percent of their field goal attempts, outscored the Knicks 18-5 to build a 103-90 lead and coasted home. The Knicks made the final score close by scoring the game's last eight points after the outcome was decided.

Bucking The Edge

NFC To Beat AFC,
At Least This Weekend

By HAL BOCK

AP Sports Writer

Everybody knows that when they go head-to-head, American Football Conference teams hold a distinct edge over their cousins from the National Conference.

NFL PICKS

The margin is 26-10 for the season and the AFC needs just one more victory to clinch the 52-game series for the sixth straight year. Ignoring that evidence, however, the Pro Picker offers a couple of NFC-over-AFC upsets this week, picking Chicago over the New York Jets and New Orleans over Seattle. As usual, no guarantees, just hunches. But you know that already, didn't you?

Last week's 9-5 made the season's record 95-57 for .625.

The picks:
CHICAGO 24, NY JETS 20: Bears are hot with three straight victories and have discovered that Mike Phipps' arm can gain yards almost as regularly as Walter Payton's legs.

NEW ORLEANS 31, SEATTLE 24: Chuck Muncie and Archie Manning give the Saints too much sock for that Seahawk defense.

PITTSBURGH 20, SAN DIEGO 14: Terry Bradshaw says the Steelers were second-rate last week. Their second rate is better than most teams' first rate.

WASHINGTON 23, DALLAS 21: The Cowboys' midyear dip lasts another week and it will cost Dallas sole possession of the NFC East lead.

MIAMI 19, CLEVELAND 17: Dolphin defense makes the difference here.

NY GIANTS 21, TAMPA BAY 17: Confidence builds every week for Phil Simms.

OAKLAND 30, KANSAS CITY 14: Chiefs are in a spin and the defense is starting to show signs of wear and tear.

NEW ENGLAND 23, BALTIMORE 17: Colts won the first meeting in Baltimore.

BUFFALO 27, GREEN BAY 21: With quarterback Joe Ferguson calling his own plays for the Bills, the AFC vs. NFC formula works here.

DENVER 34, SAN FRANCISCO 10: And here, too, as the Broncos dominate the defenseless 49ers.

HOUSTON 24, CINCINNATI 21: The difference could be a Tom Fritsch field goal as it is so often for the Oilers.

PHILADELPHIA 21, ST. LOUIS 13: A matchup of 1,000-yard rushers with Wilbert Montgomery of the Eagles against Otis Anderson of the Cardinals.

MINNESOTA 17, DETROIT 14: Vikings have fallen on hard times, but not as hard as the Lions.

Mrs. Audie Canter Dies With Funeral Planned Sunday

Mrs. Audie Lane Canter, native of Calloway County, died Thursday morning at the Henry County General Hospital, Paris, Tenn. She was 83 years of age and a resident of Route 3, Paris, Tenn.

The deceased was married Feb. 18, 1919, to Charlie C. Canter who died Nov. 10, 1958. Born Jan. 17, 1896, in Calloway County, she was the daughter of the late Sam Orr and Elzie Wilson Orr. She was a member of the Temple Baptist Church, Paris.

Mrs. Canter is survived by two sons, Mrs. Jessie Overcast, Paris, Tenn., and Mrs. Mary Timmons, St. Louis, Mo.; one son, Tillman Canter, St. Ann, Mo.; two sisters, Mrs. Donnie Gallimore, Puryear, Tenn., and Mrs. Jennie Farris, Owensboro; eight grandchildren; two great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by two sons, one daughter, one sister, and one brother.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the LeDon Chapel, Ridgeway Morticians, Paris, Tenn., with Ronnie Davidson officiating. Burial will follow in the Oak Grove Cemetery.

Euphrey Newport Dies This Morning With Rites Sunday

W. Euphrey Newport of Hardin died today at 2:05 a.m. at the Marshall County Hospital, Benton. He was 76 years of age.

Mr. Newport, a retired farmer and carpenter, was a member of the Hardin Baptist Church. Born March 25, 1903, he was the son of the late Joe Newport and Leona Hurt Newport.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Willie Starks Newport, Hardin; two daughters, Mrs. Doris O'Brien, Hardin, and Mrs. Rosa Lee Hendon, Cadiz Route 3; one son, Dale Newport, Benton Route 2; four grandchildren; one great grandchild.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at the chapel of the Linn Funeral Home, Benton, with John Stringer and Willis Green officiating. Burial will follow in the Pace Cemetery at Hardin.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 10 a.m. Saturday.

Final Rites Today For Mrs. Lassiter

The funeral for Mrs. Chettie Lassiter, widow of Carroll Lassiter, is being held today at 2 p.m. at the chapel of the J. H. Churchill Funeral Home with John Dale officiating and Jerry Bolls leading the song service.

Serving as pallbearers are Ottis Valentine, Wilson Hughes, Frank Hargis, Aubrey Hatcher, Edgar Rowland, and Walter Conner. Burial will follow in the Murray City Cemetery.

Mrs. Lassiter, 78, a resident of 705 Poplar Street, Murray, died Thursday at 12:35 a.m. at the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. A retired saleslady from Littleton's, she was a member of the Seventh and Poplar Church of Christ.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Odessa Peak, Macon, Tenn., and several nieces and nephews including Mrs. Louise Carter and J. D. Jones of Graves County.

Funeral Is Today For Mrs. Cox, Sr.

Final rites for Mrs. Walter D. (Mary Elizabeth) Cox, Sr., of Cottage Grove, Tenn., are being held today at 2 p.m. at the LeDon Chapel, Ridgeway Morticians, Paris, Tenn., with Garvin Brundige and W. C. Anderson officiating.

Grandsons are serving as pallbearers and burial will follow in the Olive Branch Cemetery.

Mrs. Cox, Sr., 86, died Wednesday morning at the Long Term Care Unit of the Murray-Calloway County Hospital. One daughter, Mrs. Fred (Susie) Workman of Murray, died Aug. 5 of this year.

She is survived by her husband, Walter D. Cox, Sr., to whom she was married on April 23, 1918; one daughter, Mrs. Ruby Lee Woods, San Antonio, Texas; three sons, Raymond, Paul, and W. D. Cox, Jr., all of Henry County, Tenn.

Dr. Hammond Will Speak At Church

Dr. Bill Hammond, president of the International Christian College, Phoenix, Ariz., will be the guest speaker at the 7 p.m. worship services on Sunday, Nov. 18, at the Christian Fellowship Church, Briensburg.

The public is invited to attend, a church spokesman said.

Presbyterians To Hear Pastor Speak

The Rev. R. E. Rabatin, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, 16th and Main Streets, Murray, will speak at the 10:45 a.m. worship services on Sunday, Nov. 18.

Directing the choir members as they sing the anthem, "St. Francis Hymn," will be Lisa Slater with Beth Braboy as organist.

Church School will begin at 9:30 a.m. with the study topic being "Samuel Is Given to God." The Jesse Rogers Class will study the "Reign of Love in the New Community," while the other Adult Class will conclude its study of "The Great Energy Debate" led by Ed Graves. Alida Graves is acting superintendent of the church school.

Home Given To Exotic Animals

By NANCY SHULINS
Associated Press Writer
PATRONVILLE, Ind. (AP) —

Jeanne Ellis' cozy homestead has sheltered more than a dozen exotic creatures over the years, including a lion "who'd follow me anywhere" and a mockingbird known as the village drunk. "I never turn anything down — not even the snakes," said the gray-haired woman. In a voice that's a cross between a bark and a growl, she speaks with affection of all wild things.

Besides, Mrs. Ellis, has faced far bigger problems — like how to cool the ardor of a love-starved possum and how to papertrain a pig.

These days, she shares her home with a ferret that has taken a shine to a warm kitchen drawer. The living room walls are covered with photos

Bazaar Planned By The Bethel Women

The Bethel United Methodist Church Women will have a bazaar on Saturday, Nov. 17, from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the American Legion Hall.

Items to be featured at the bazaar include homemade quilts, afghans, pillows, Christmas decorations, home canned fruits and vegetables, baked goods, and white elephant pieces, according to a church spokesman who invites the public to attend.

Southwest PTC To Hold Meet Monday

The Southwest School Parent-Teacher Club will meet Monday, Nov. 19, at 6:30 p.m. in the school cafeteria.

Roy Cothran, principal of the Calloway County Middle School, will present an up-date of the progress of that school.

All parents, teachers, and interested persons are encouraged to attend, a PTC spokesman said.

of Charles Herbert, ferret No. 1, and with blue ribbons won by the show dogs Mrs. Ellis has owned.

Along with the ferrets, and the dogs that live in her Humble Acres Kennel out back, there have been three raccoons, a lion and a pig; a duck, a deer, a crow and a mockingbird.

Many were rescued, some were delivered, and a few were purchased for nominal fees from owners, whose methods Mrs. Ellis disapproved.

Congo the lion was given to her by the Mesker Zoo in Evansville. Her 18-month assignment — to tame him so he could be led on a leash — was successful. But the happy liaison ended in tragedy.

Back at the zoo, Congo was unable to adjust to being behind bars, and eventually, he was put to sleep. More than a decade later, Mrs. Ellis still grieves. But she says she learned long ago that wildlife does not always end happily.

"I've been at it all my life. My animals took the place of playmates," Mrs. Ellis said, and that hasn't changed.

She still prefers the company of animals to that of people, at least "the average bunch of dolts you come across."

Outspoken, almost fiery at times, Mrs. Ellis isn't one to mince words, especially where animals are concerned. "Tell 'em exotic animals shouldn't be kept as pets," she barked — this from a lady with a ferret draped around her neck.

Hazel Methodists Plan Services

The Hazel United Methodist Church will hear its pastor, the Rev. Frank Bratt, speak on a Thanksgiving text, 1 Thessalonians 5:14-28, at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday, Nov. 18.

Lori Malcolm will also be in charge of a special Thanksgiving program at the services. She will be assisted by Cindy Edwards and Valerie Jones.

Acolytes serving will be Terri Malcolm and Johnna Jones.

Sunday School will be at 10 a.m.

"Well," she said slowly, "this is different. My ferret goes where he wants to. I put papers down for him all over my house."

"But most people wouldn't do that. Most people aren't willing to live this way."

Neither, she added, are they willing to live with drinking problems, nor possums that like to "kiss, kiss, kiss all night long when you're trying to get some sleep."

But here at Humble Acres, kissing the proprietor is permitted, and a little nightcap every now and then is all right, too, so long as it's done with dignity, one of Mrs. Ellis' watchwords.

In England, about a century ago, if a wealthy bridegroom did not wish to assume any debts his future wife might have, she would arrive at the wedding in just a shift. This signified that her future husband was free from any of her obligations.

Community Thanksgiving Service Is Scheduled

A Community Thanksgiving service will be held at the Goshen United Methodist Church on Sunday, Nov. 18, at 6:30 p.m. with the Rev. Robert Wassom, pastor of the Locust Grove Church of the Nazarene, as the speaker.

Members of the various churches involved will participate in the program. The Goshen Choir, directed by Charles Archer, with Jo Reeder as organist and Sue Archer as pianist, will provide special music.

College Theatre Festival To Close After Saturday Shows

The Kentucky College Theatre Festival comes to a conclusion on Saturday with two final productions being presented in the University Theatre on the campus of Murray State University.

At noon, Georgetown College will present "The Runner Stumbles," Milan Stitt's intense drama of repressed passions.

At 8:30 on Saturday evening, Morehead State University will present "Marsupials in Action," Leonard Price's new comedy of the strange happenings in a branch library.

General admission tickets are on sale at the University Theatre box office for $3 per performance $2 with a season ticket. Special rates are available for groups of 10 or more. For information, call 767-6797.

An offering will be taken for the Murray-Calloway County Comprehensive Care Center. A fellowship hour will follow the worship service.

Participating churches are Coldwater and Mt. Carmel United Methodist, the Rev. Layne Shanklin, pastor; Kirksey and Coles Camp Ground United Methodist, the Rev. Bob Dotson, pastor; Oak Grove Cumberland Presbyterian, the Rev. A. J. Terry, pastor; Locust Grove Church of the Nazarene, the Rev. Robert Wassom, pastor; and Lynn Grove and Goshen United Methodist, the Rev. Julian Warren, pastor.

The public is invited to attend this special Thanksgiving service, a spokesman said.

Pleasant Grove To Hold Services Here

Worship services at the South Pleasant Grove United Methodist Church on Sunday, Nov. 18, will be at 10:45 with the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Paul Blankenship, to speak on the subject, "Thankful Giving."

The choir, directed by Dr. Jan Taylor, will sing "A Child of the King" with Mrs. Olivene Erwin as organist and Tommy Gaines as pianist.

Sunday School will start at 9:45 a.m.

Because of the Council on Ministries' Planning Retreat Sunday afternoon at Lakeshore Camp near Camden, Tenn., the Sunday evening worship will not be held.

BOY SCOUT TROOP TO CONDUCT OLD NEWSPAPER DRIVE

Boy Scout Troop No. 77 will hold its semi-annual old Newspaper Drive Saturday, November 17th.

The Newspaper Drive is both a fund raising and conservation activity for the troop, according to Senior Patrol Leader, BRENT CLARK.

The leader said "conservation plays a big role in the scouting program and is a vital part of the Outdoor Code, which is the scouting attitude toward nature and the out-of-doors; that the collection of papers helps the scouts and public to be more aware of saving our nations natural resources.

Persons who have papers should call 753-3824 and give their name, address, and location of the papers. "Only newspapers can be taken, no magazines, booklets, etc.," Clark said.

Prime Time Sunday On Last Legs

By PETER J. BOYER

AP Television Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — NBC's "Prime Time Sunday" made its debut last summer making noises like a world beater, possessed of all the brass and confidence of its host, Tom Snyder.

The show was live, and it had a flash — including right-of-way transmissions by satellite and on-camera technical directions. NBC President Fred Silverman gave the show a boost by starting it in June so it could have a head start on the season; in a bold show of bravado, Snyder vowed before NBC affiliates to make it work, even suggesting he'd quit the business if "Prime Time" flopped.

Silverman and his corps of executives repeatedly declared that NBC wanted a prime-time news magazine, and that "Prime Time Sunday" was it. Now, apparently, they aren't so sure.

Last week, word came from industry sources that "Prime Time Sunday" was on its last legs, that the show's disastrous ratings were too low to support NBC's staying with it for a full year, as its producers had been promised. It was said that "Prime Time" would air three more times and then be removed from the schedule in December. NBC, while conceding that the show's ratings have disappointed, denied that "Prime Time" has been given a cancellation notice. Indeed, a Los Angeles producer is working on a segment scheduled to be aired in late January.

And Silverman and others in recent weeks have repeated that NBC is standing by the show. "Prime Time is firmly in Sunday" was only allowed dead last in the Nielsen ratings for the week.

Before that, in the first six weeks of this season, "Prime Time" aired only four times, finishing near the bottom of the ratings in each outing with an average audience share of about one-fifth viewers. Similar ratings failures preceded the death of "Weekend," the predecessor of "Prime Time."

Meanwhile, ABC's newsmagazine, "20-20," continues to grow and CBS' "60 Minutes" is as strong as most entertainment programs. NBC still wants a newsmagazine. But there are signs that "Prime Time" may not be it, at least for long.

Celebrities Lead Annual 'Great American Smokeout'

By The Associated Press
Lured by a host of celebrities ranging from actor Ed Asner to Emily the chimpanzee, cigarette smokers who want to quit puffing joined Thursday's "Great American Smokeout," trying to go for 24 hours without lighting up.

This is the third annual smokeout. The American Cancer Society, sponsor of the event, said that 14 million people participated in last year's program and predicted: "This year we expect as many or more."

Among those who quit in 1978 was Asner, who is national chairman of the smokeout for the second consecutive time. Other public figures who are serving as honorary de-

Amateur Detective Popular In Creating New Programs

By PETER J. BOYER

AP Television Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) —

A couple of publicity sheets arrived from NBC the other day announcing the development of two new shows for the network.

"Mamma" and "Allison

Sydney Harrison," they were called.

So what? Well, the subject matter of these planned shows seems noteworthy, perhaps even telling. "Mamma," a pilot starring Esther Rolle, is about a housemaid "with an abiding passion for murder mysteries."

"Allison" is about a 14-year-old kid, daughter of a high-priced detective, who has "an insatiable

curiosity and a terrific nose for trouble." And, no doubt,

an abiding passion for mysteries.

Yes, I smell trend here.

The amateur detective is the coming thing. Cops or professional private detectives have become passee on TV. Having an amateur solve crimes

allows for much more ludicrous situations.

NBC already has a housewife-detective with a

"Emergency Myst-

Then he develops an

"Mo," about Morris

Sibbitz, a TV executive with an abiding passion for mysteries. In the pilot, capar, Mo tries to solve the disappearance of a new idea from a major network.

When he can't solve the mystery, he tries to pass off a hackneyed old idea as the missing new idea. He is declared a genius and

Sesame Street Still Growing

objection: critics said the show discouraged development of a child's attention span.

"It is my fixed belief," says Ms. Cooney, 49, CTW's president since 1970, "that children live in a television environment, and if 'Laugh-In' is the most popular show of the day — as it was when we began — then you had better realize that and adapt yourself to it."

"Then things slowed down, and 'Sesame Street' slowed down with them," she says. "Our pacing is slower now, and the segments are longer. When we started, our researchers said 2-year-olds could take a half-hour of the program. Now they say the same age group can watch the full hour."

Cooney has worked as a newspaper reporter, a TV publicist, a public television documentary producer, and a consultant on preschool education and TV for the Carnegie Corp. In 1967 she helped found CTW to produce "Sesame Street."

"I think we've all lived it so utterly intensely over the years," says Ms. Cooney, "that today it's hard to separate my personal life from my work life, and I don't try."

CTW helps support "Sesame Street" and its other projects through the sale of toys and other materials inspired by the program.

In 1969, the show was produced for $6.9 million, all of it from grants and public funding. The budget for its upcoming season is $8.3 million. Almost half — $3.9 million — is CTW-generated from sale of its "Sesame Street" products.

"On balance," says Ms. Cooney, "I would say the financial atmosphere for us is worse than it was in the late '60s, when there was a good deal of emphasis on education, especially of those children of impoverished circumstances. Vietnam and, now, inflation, have changed that. Everyone is saying, 'Do what you can with what you've got, and good luck.'"

CTW has made several forays into commercial television. CBS, for instance, last season broadcast an animated CTW production of "The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe," from C.S. Lewis' "Chronicles of Narnia."

The show won an Emmy, as did "Christmas on Sesame Street," a special produced for the Public Broadcasting Service.

Reidland Senior Wins MSU Chemistry Tourney

Sean Niestrath, a senior at Reidland High School, was the winner Saturday of the $400 scholarship top award in the 9th annual Murray State University chemistry tournament.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Niestrath, 159 Maple Drive, Paducah, the future pre-medical student scored the highest mark of the 77 seniors from 22 area high schools taking the comprehensive, 80-minute examination.

Niestrath was one of five Reidland students sponsored in the tournament by their teacher, Mrs. Shirley Wrinkle. The others were Jay Fuller, Saya Henry, Chris Marshall and Roger Trovillion.

U.S. President James Garfield died of wounds inflicted by an assassin in 1881.

Winner of second place and a $200 scholarship was Chuck Cowgill, Hardin County High School, Rosiclare, Ill. The son of Rev. and Mrs. Charles B. Cowgill, Route 1, Golconda, he plans to enroll at Murray State next fall, also as a pre-med student.

His sponsor was Larry Conley and Carol Cox was the only other student from the Illinois school taking the test.

Winner of the third-place, $200 scholarship was Robin James, Marshall County High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert S. James, Route 2, Benton.

A computer engineering aspirant, he was sponsored by Mrs. Paula Hill, and three of his classmates also were among those taking the test—Diane Cotham, Scott Drury and Dean Jackson.

Brent Boston, Murray High School and the son of Rev. and Mrs. Fil Boston, 305 North 7th Street, was the fourth-place, $200 scholarship winner.

Sponsored by Lloyd Hasty, he plans to study for a chemical engineering career, and was one of five Murray High students taking the test. The others were: Carol Edwards, Doug Moore, Mark Ferguson and Allison Wallace.

The tournament was sponsored by the Department of Chemistry at Murray State and the Student Affiliates campus branch of the American Chemical Society. Dr. James L. Meeks, chairman of the department, and David Lowell, the chemistry curator at the university, coordinated the event.

Among the students participating were these from Calloway County High, Murray, and sponsored by Nancy Melon: Donald Colson, Nick Horton and Denise Rutherford. Of these, Denise Rutherford scored the highest grade on the test.

MSU Faculty To Conduct Free Piano Workshop

Three members of the piano faculty at Murray State University will conduct a free Piano Workshop on the campus for students in grades nine through 12 and their teachers on Saturday, Nov. 17. Sponsored by the Department of Music at Murray State, the workshop will include instruction by Dr. Judyth Lippman, Dr. James McKeever, and Marie Taylor. The sessions have been designed to inform students about piano study at the college level, to provide an opportunity for learning, and to present performances, by Murray State faculty and students.

Dr. Lippman and Dr. McKeever will perform several piano works in the final session, while Mrs. Taylor will demonstrate and perform on the harpsichord. The Piano Workshop is being offered as part of Keyboard Emphasis Week at Murray State.

SEVEN ARTISTS
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "Seven on the Figure," an exhibition of paintings and sculpture by seven contemporary American artists who focus on the figure, is being shown at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts through Dec. 16. The artists represented in the show are Jack Beal, Willem de Kooning, William Beckman, John de Andrea, Stephen Destaele, Joan Brown and Ben Kamihira.

The Importance of Thanksgiving

Why do we have a national day of Thanksgiving? Why did our forefathers think it important to set aside a special day to thank God for our many blessings? Perhaps the contrast between the degree of political and religious freedom was still fresh in the minds of these early settlers. They felt a particular gratitude to God for leading them to this land of freedom and plenty.

Over the years, Thanksgiving may have lost some of its original significance. Now it has become a time for families to meet, to feast on turkey and to watch football games on television. This year would be a good time to review the history of our national day of thanks. It will provide a renewed significance for you and your family to celebrate.
